KIS Head of School Elected to International Baccalaureate Board

Mrs. Sally Holloway, founding Head of KIS International School, has been recognized for her wealth of knowledge and professional experience by the International Baccalaureate (IB) Heads Council. The Heads Council, comprised of 12 elected representatives from the three global IB hubs, recently elected Mrs. Holloway as Chair, a position that carries with it a place on the IB Board. The IB Board is a professional body that governs the IB globally and relies upon the Chair of the Heads Council to represent the opinions and concerns of IB schools. ■
